ST. LOUIS, July 28.-Today the Nationals have a comparatively safe hold on third place, and that St. Louis is not in the first division is due to the setback meted out in that thirteen inning game of yesterday. While the game was most stubbornly fought from the outset it was marred in the extreme by consistent, persistent, and tiresome wrangling, blckering and complaining, both sides somewhat at fault. Of course, when there are extra innings it is to be expected that the time will stretch. But when a contest is scheduled to start at 5.30 and the clock shows 6:45 at the finish, there is more than the check the extent real baseball to blame for the exten-

The first real row came when Griffith decided to take Engel out. Henry 2: by A had complained that his right hand Dineen. was injured, and while he and Ainsmith were exchanging places Walter Johnson was sent out to warm up. This seemed to peeve Connolly, but when the move was finally made to put The Nationals were forced to Johnson in, the umpire was all over seven pitchers in two days, here. Johnson in, the umpire was all over the field trying to drive the Griffmen into action. They were defaunt to the point where Schaefer was chased off the diamond, and in a later inning he was joined in his exile by Altrock, who, Connoily decreed, was altogether too noisy, although from the stand it could not be seen that the coaching was exceeding the usual bounds. Connoily decreed, was altogether too noisy, although from the stand it could not be seen that the coaching was exceeding the usual bounds. Connoily was constantly trying to quiet complaints from Griffith, and finally threatened to eliminate the Washington manager.

The Nationals have always been considered one of the most popular teams on the road in basebail. Yesterday they thought the stand it could not hit because of a number of coalless men in the bleachers in the limited time he had to toss to a catch-limited time he had to toss to a cat

Later the Browns attempted to ring in a new ball on the Nationals. This precipitated another row, in which members of both teams joined, and was not ended until the umpire had thrown the ball out of play. Such dilatory tactics as both teams engaged in yesterday are of the sort that are calculated to bring smiles to the faces of those who are working for the interest of the Federal League and other evidences of the apparent de-termination of some organized baseball people to have the public become even more disgusted with the present con-duct of affairs. The crowd hooted and hissed yesterday, and there was no legitimate reason why Sportsmen's Park should not have been cleared of the throng long before 6:45.

RUMOR SAYS GREGG WILL JOIN RED SOX

Somers Said to Have Arranged Trade of Southpaw for Henriksen and Yerkes.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 28.—Vean Gregg is to join the Boston Red Sox before the latter leave town tonight, according to a rumor here today. It is said that Gregg is to be traded for two Red Sox players, probably Yerkes and Henriksen. Joe Lannin and Charlie Somers, the Boston and Cleveland magnates, respectively, conferred at the Cleveland A. C. last night, and are believed to have reached an agreement. George Baumgardner, the Brownles' crack right-hander, is expected to be obtained by the Naps in exchange for Bill Carisch and Doc Johnston. The Brown need a seasoned backstop, and might make an outfielder out of Doc Johnston. if he cannot beat out Leary for the first corner berth.

President Somers is very much in earnest about getting rid of those players who have falled to make good with the Naps this year. Since last grason's great race, the Naps have been torn apart with cliques. Somers intends to end this state of affairs, if he has to sell or trade every man on the team.

"Yes, I'll listen to any kind of a proposition that looks good to me," said Somers today, "but I'm no angel. I'm not giving away good players. The men on my team are good players, but they simply don't work well together. On other teams they would shine. The Yankees wanted Gregg, but Chance couldn't offer equal values for him. When going right, Gregg is the best southpaw in either big league."

Manager Carrigan Predicts Trouble for All Foemen When Joe Wood Comes Back.
